HAPPENING IN THE BALDACCHINO GYPSY TENT

Clown Cabaret

Clowns are terribly misunderstood these days. Our goal is to change that. With highly skilled, well-trained performers, Clown Cabaret will not only expand the audience's understanding, but give them the opportunity to laugh, cry, and, maybe, throw a pie in someone's face. 75 minutes

Monday, July 11 5:30pm to 6:30pm

DOES ART MATTER?

In a time of war, environmental disasters, and economic crisis, how does art in the nation's capital make a difference? Join us for an interactive discussion with area artists, art-watchers, and producers as we discuss art-making in DC and where it connects justice, protest, community and transformation.

Monday, July 11 7:30 to 8:30 pm

CREATIVITY'S LEGAL SIDE

Q + A session is designed to help artists navigate legal issues pertaining to their creative endeavors. Attendees will have an opportunity to ask DC-based practicing entertainment and arts lawyer John D. Mason any and all arts-related legal questions. Come and ask away!

Monday, July 18 5:30 to 6:30 pm

SOLO PERFORMANCE ROUNDTABLE

Solo performance – what is it? Come find out firsthand what solo performance incorporates and what it takes to be a solo performer, from the writing process and new work development to production challenges and audience outreach. Lead by noted solo performer Stevie Jay (steviejay3.com).

Monday, July 18 7:30 to 8:30 pm

CRITICAL MASS

Come talk about this years Fringe Festival and the art of criticism with the members of Washington City Paper's FRINGE AND PURGE ACTION NEWS AND COMMENTARY SQUAD -- and then critique the critics in a 20-minute free-for-all.
