AUDIENCE SERVICES

EXPLORE

You can get to the Fringe Festival by Metro on the Red Line. If you get off at NOMA/Gallaudet it is about a 10-minute walk to Gallaudet University and a 15-minute walk to The Logan, both are straight up Florida Ave. If you get off at Union Station you can take the Streetcar up H Street NE and get off at 13th Street. There are also several buses that can get you to the Fringe Festival venues. Check the venue map on page 5 for details. Biking is great too. We have two large bike racks at The Logan. If you must drive, please know that parking is on the street. All official Fringe Festival venues are within walking distance of each other.

Get to know the rapidly changing H Street NE and Trinidad neighborhood. Wear your Fringe Button into numerous restaurants and shops located near each venue and receive a special discount. Once you use your button to obtain one discount you have paid for it. In wearing it you are showing your support for Fringe and the artists we serve. Thank you! Pick up the list of Fringe Button discount businesses at any venue or at capitalfringe.org. Make sure to hold onto your Fringe Button after the Fringe Festival. Discounts for Capital Fringe are offered monthly on theatre shows, special events and restaurants.

FRINGE ARTS BAR

Come visit the Logan Fringe Arts Space to hang out and enjoy the summer weather. A carefully selected group of local musicians will perform in the courtyard while food and drinks are available at the Fringe Arts Bar, 1358 Florida Ave NE, right at the corner of Staples and Florida Ave NE one block off of H Street NE. Best times to stop by are Tuesday to Friday 5pm to 2am and Saturday and Sunday Noon to 2am. Drinks are discounted between 11pm and 1am. Email info@capitalfringe.org with any questions.

MUSIC

Akua Allrich

Capital Fringe | Downtown DC Live
Washington, DC

Jazz vocalist and DC-native Akua Allrich has proven herself to be a musician of extraordinary talent and crowd-moving passion. Her style is fluid and ever evolving. Her musical roots run deeply into blues, soul and rhythm and blues, with a clear rounding in jazz and pan-African music.

Tarus Mateen

Capital Fringe | Downtown DC Live
Washington, DC

Tarus's creative genius make him one of the most sought-after musician/producers in hip-hop, house, blues, rock, reggae, soul, and straight ahead jazz. He is quite possibly the only musician to receive critical acclaim in all these musical genres at once. Since 1996, there has not been a Top 10 jazz album that didn't feature Tarus Mateen.

Des Demonas

Capital Fringe | Music in the Library
Washington, DC

Des Demonas is a new band from Washington, DC with a lineup including notable figures from the DC punk community. The band is fronted by vocalist Jacky Cougar Abok, a 6'5" Kenyan punk, drummer, zine publisher, and devotee of The Fall whose vocal stylings have been likened to Fela Kuti meets Gil Scott-Heron meets Mark E. Smith.
